

The image shows the landing page of the glu.ai website. The background is blue with a large white 'glu' logo at the top. Below it, the text reads: 'First AI Visibility platform for the $50B AI commerce shift.' At the bottom left is the URL 'glu.ai/geo'.
